Information We Collect About You

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- ❖ Information we receive from you on applications and other forms
- ❖ Information about your transactions with us
- ❖ Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency
- ❖ Information obtained when verifying the information you provide on an application or other forms. This may be obtained from your current or past employers, or from other institutions where you conduct financial transactions

Information We Disclose

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our members or former members to anyone, except as permitted by law.

Disclosure of Information to Parties That Provide Services to Us

We may disclose all of the information we collect, as described above, to companies that perform marketing or other services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements

Disclosure of Information About Former Members

If you terminate your membership with Katahdin Federal Credit Union, we will not share information we have collected about you, except as may be permitted or required by law.

How We Protect Your Information

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to persons who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, or procedural safeguards that comply with Federal Regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.

What Members Can Do to Help

Katahdin Federal Credit Union is committed to protecting the privacy of its members. Members can help by following these simple guidelines:

- Protect your account number, plastic card numbers, PINS (personal identification numbers) or passwords. Never keep your PIN with your card, which can provide free access to accounts if your card is lost or stolen.
- Use caution when disclosing your account numbers, social security numbers, etc. to other persons. If someone calls you explaining the call is on behalf of the credit union and asks for your account number, you should beware. Official credit union staff will have access to your information and will not need to ask for it.
- Keep your information with us current. If your address or phone number changes, please let us know. It is important that we have current information on how to reach you. If we detect potentially fraudulent or unauthorized activity or use of an account, we will attempt to contact you immediately.
